

Law No. 11 of 2006 On Independent Schools 11 / 2006

Number of Articles: 11

Stars icon indicate that some articles are amended

Table of Content

Articles (1-11)

We, Tamim bin Hamad Al-Thani, Deputy Emir of Qatar,
Having perused the Constitution,
Decree-Law No. 37 of 2002 pertaining to the establishment of the Supreme Education Council and specifying its functions, as amended by Law No. 7 of 2004,
the proposal of the Supreme Education Council,
The draft law submitted by the Council of Ministers, and Having taken the opinion of the Shura Council,
Hereby promulgate the following law

Articles

Article 1 (Amended By Decree 20/2010)

For the application of the provisions of this Law, the following words and expressions shall have the meanings assigned to them, unless the context requires otherwise:

“Council” means the Supreme Education Council (SEC).

“Independent school” means an educational institution for pre-university stages established by the Council. A natural or juristic person may be licensed to manage the institution under the Council’s supervision and control. The licensee shall have all the financial and administrative powers, in accordance with the bylaws and resolutions issued by the Council, to implement the provisions of this Law.

“Licensee” means the natural or juristic person licensed by the Council to manage an independent school under the Council’s supervision and control.

Article 2 (Amended By Decree 20/2010)

The Council shall have the power to license a natural or juristic person for the management of an independent school. An independent school shall have a legal personality, in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and shall not be profit-oriented. The bylaws and resolutions issued by the Council shall regulate the required conditions by the applicant, procedures of application, decisions issuance and the rules for granting licenses.

Article 3

The Council shall have the power to license a natural or juristic person for the management of an independent school. An independent school shall have a legal personality, in accordance with the provisions of this Law, and shall not be profit-oriented. The bylaws and resolutions issued by the Council shall regulate the required conditions by the applicant, procedures of application, decisions issuance and the rules for granting licenses.

Article 4 (Amended By Decree 20/2010)

The license to manage an independent school shall be on an in personam basis and may not be transferred to third parties.

Article 5 (Amended By Decree 20/2010)

A single person may not be licensed to manage more than one independent school.

Article 6

The licensee shall undertake the management of the independent school and shall be responsible for all technical, administrative, and financial aspects, in accordance with the provisions of this Law and the implementing bylaws and resolutions.

Article 7 (Amended By Decree 20/2010)

The licensee shall represent the independent school before judiciary and in its relations with third parties.

Article 8

An infringement by the licensee of the provisions of this Law implementing bylaws and resolutions thereof or terms of licensing shall result in the revocation of the license. In such case, a resolution by the Council shall regulate the procedures of management of the independent school.

Article 9

The Council shall issue the bylaws and resolutions necessary to implement the provisions of this Law.

Article 10

on the date of application of this Law, providers in charge of independent schools, shall during the term specified by the council and upon a proposal by the Education Authority in the Council regulate all the financial and administrative matters of such schools.

Article 11

All competent authorities, each within their jurisdiction, shall enforce this Law from the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

Please do not consider the material presented above Official
Al Meezan - Qatary Legal Portal